Get to Know our Executive Chef

Seth Fernald has been in the restaurant industry for over 21 years now. He started washing dishes at the age of 16 at a local restaurant and found how passionate he could be about food. Seth Graduated from Johnson & Wales University in 2001 and has spent the last 14 years honing his craft. As a man of exceptionally high personal standards, Seth values genuine collaboration with the entire staff here at Novelty Hill-Januik Winery.

When Seth moved to Seattle in 2013 he dreamed of getting an opportunity to work in a winery in the Woodinville area. His dream came true that spring when he received the call that Novelty Hill-Januik Winery had selected him to be their newest Executive Chef. Since Seth has been with us at the winery, he has taken all his years of diverse knowledge and applied it to what we believe is the best culinary program the Winery has ever had.

Novelty Hill and Januik are two independent wineries that share a tasting room and production facility in Woodinville wine country.

Acclaimed Washington State winemaker Mike Januik founded Januik Winery in 1999 drawing on Columbia Valley winemaking experience dating back to 1984. The winery is dedicated to crafting limited release wines by working on a small scale with fruit from the state's best vineyards and concentrating on the details of winemaking, from fermentation through blending.

Mike oversees winemaking for Novelty Hill as well, relying on the winery's estate vineyard Stillwater Creek, to produce rich, balanced wines that capture the finest expression of this steep, south-facing site on the Royal Slope of the Frenchman Hills. The vineyard is best known for its unique selection of premium varietal clones.
