

SETH FERNALD, EXECUTIVE CHEF

SETH FERNALD is EXECUTIVE CHEF for NOVELTY HILL-JANUIK winery in Woodinville, Washington. He joined the winery in the spring of 2014, bringing a rich culinary background honed over 20 years in New England.

On his arrival in the Pacific Northwest in 2013 Seth joined James Beard award-winning chef Tamara Murphy as Executive Sous Chef at Seattle's Terra Plata restaurant. He was drawn to the region by the bounty of local growers and artisan producers who provide the inspiration for his seasonal menus. A keen interest in wine led him to Novelty Hill-Januik where he enjoys pairing wines with fresh, local ingredients. In the summer of 2015 he competed against top local chefs to win the Quick Fire Challenge held in conjunction with Experience Woodinville at the Willows Lodge.

Before moving to the Northwest Seth served as Senior Chef at Journeyman restaurant in Somerville, Massachusetts. Prior to joining Journeyman, Seth held Executive Chef positions at a variety of Boston area restaurants and private clubs. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Culinary Arts from Johnson & Wales University in Providence, Rhode Island.

Seth lives in Bothell with his wife Maria and their daughter Olivia.

